

Thought for the week

Prayer for Remembering in November

Lord, the harvest now is gathered, the meadows golden brown, we rest before cold winter the silent sheaves bow down. Barren trees cry leaves into the river, yellow-red they fall floating on the water's edge the lonely trees stand tall.

An old raven perches high above the church tower and cries a lonesome sound to the bells of time, Now we remember when life is gathered and November winds blow memories to the fore all the friends who sleep in death I remember more and more.

How short is time lest we forget taking much for granted for life is brief.
From tree to leaf a tiny seed once planted.
Lord may my memories always be happy ones of love of joy that no time will destroy for those who have died are gathered to you walking in light in knowledge in truth.
May they tell stories may they sing songs in the garden of Eden all sadness gone.
But they are so close now a breath on the wind
may God show his mercy to souls who have sinned.
Where yew trees are planted that catch autumn dew where heather is purple and berries are few
So, sleep dear souls in silence beneath the blue moons gaze.
Carved on weathered headstones the years of waiting days, waiting for you O lord.

Have a Wonderful Week

THAT NOVEMBER FEELING

The year quickens to a close nature slows down its activity. Traditionally November is a time when we remember the dead in a special way. Gravestones, Memorial cards, Cemeteries, Anniversaries Masses, are really about the same thing - keeping our dead alive. Years on, it keeps us in touch with our deceased. We speak about respecting the dead. There is much more to it than that. These are simple ways in which we continue the regard that we held for our family members in life. It is also our way of saying thanks to people who helped the Word to become not only flesh but helped the Word to become fresh. Our memory of them is a kind one, which like our God who is more anxious to search out what is good, than to condemn. Not that all our dead were saints, but somehow, in November, we view them at their best. The parents who taught us our first prayers and guided us in so many ways, the infant, the child, the teenager, the grandparent - each of them no matter how long they lived, for seconds or years, give us cause for being grateful for their companionship in life. We look back, are inspired and are thankful. We look forward and hope that our legacy to a new generation will be no less generous.

'Remember our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of rising again. Bring them into the light of your presence'

MASS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED DURING THIS PAST YEAR

This past year has been a challenging year for so many people, especially those people who have lost loved ones and because of the guidelines were unable to give them a merited farewell. November is a special month when we remember our dead. On Friday 19th. we will have a special mass in Ballyconnell Church at 7.30 for those people who have passed away during this health emergency. If you want your loved one remembered at this mass, please call the Parish office to include their name. We will also have lists in the back of each one of the churches. We can also include relatives and friends from other parishes.

TEAM HOPE CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX APPEAL

Christmas shoeboxes are being collected again locally. You can send the boxes into Ballyconnell NS or contact Irene Donoghue for more information: 087-7719732. Leaflets can also be collected at the Parish Office.
