Thought for the week

A SUMMER PRAYER

'May you breathe in the beauty of Summer with its power of transformation. May you seek and find spaces of repose during these summer months. May these moments refresh and restore the tired places within you. May you be open to times of celebration and recreation that are so much a part of summer. May your eyes see the wonder of summer's colours. May these colours delight you and entice you into contemplation and joy. May you feel energy of summer rains penetrating thirsty gardens, golf courses, lawns and farmlands. May your inner self be refreshed, restored and renewed. May you enjoy the unexpected and find surprises of beauty and happiness as you travel the roads on summer holidays.

Have a Wonderful Week

I'll do it Tomorrow!

Those of us who are procrastinators will identify with today's Gospel. We have the best of intentions, but somehow our 'to do' list for today keeps getting pushed out until tomorrow, and the next day, and the next day, and the next week. There is always an excuse, or something more urgent that needs to be done. The things that we do not prioritise get relegated to the bottom of the list, and sometimes drop off altogether, so that they never get done. In Luke's Gospel, when Jesus invites people to follow him, he gets some similar responses - 'I'll be right with you, I'll add it to my 'to do' list. 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me....' The excuses these people give are far from feeble: one wants to go and bury his or her father first, another simply wants to say goodbye to their family. But Jesus has what sound like very harsh words for these predicaments. There is no time, there can be no excuses, this is more important. Discipleship is a path that means living in a new and different way. Rather than focusing on the past, we need to move forward and get on with the task. Jesus tells us: 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.' There is work to be done, and it cannot wait. People who are hungry, homeless, marginalised or suffering cannot wait. The earth cannot wait. Our 'to do' lists need to be shaken up. If we are to live as disciples, the time is not tomorrow, it is now

Christian Motivational Phrases

A good life is when you assume nothing; do more; need less; smile often; dream big and laugh a lot; and realize how blessed you are whatever you have.

Please Pray for the work of the Synod: You may have seen coverage of the national synodal gathering last weekend. It was attended by Bishop Denis and the three diocesan delegates. While we await the publication of the Irish Synod Synthesis, people in Kildare and Leighlin can read our local synthesis at www.kandle.ie and watch an I Catholic Special on it at www.iCatholic.ie
If you didn't have an opportunity to take part in this listening please be assured that this is just a first step. There will be other opportunities for bringing your voice and experience to our conversations about being Church together.

*We stand before you Holy Spirit, as we gather together in your name,
With you alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts,
Teach us the way we must go, and how we are to pursue it.*

*We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder;
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path, nor partiality influence our actions,*

*Let us find in you our unity So that we may journey together to eternal life
And not stray from the way of truth and what is right.*

All this we ask of you, Who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

Summer Picnic, Carlow; The 2nd leg of Summer Picnic Carlow 2022 is happening on
