PASTORAL AREA MEETINGS

Next week we begin a second series of Pastoral area meetings to further reflect and tease out together the principles that will shape our future of co-responsibility and how we must think in terms of our cluster group and the wider pastoral area. These meetings are all about building a Church of the future, a Church we can feel part of. The DPC (Deannery Pastoral Council) have put together: "Put out into the Deep Water" document to remind us what was shared at those earlier summer meetings and what actions were suggested. It is critically important that at this stage, we begin to put a shape and a timing on the agreed principles that will guide us on our shared journey. I cannot over emphasise how important these meetings will be over the month of September. It is vitally important that there is representation from all parishes. Our next pastoral area meeting will be in Tullow Parish centre on Monday 25th. September - tea and coffee at 7.15, meeting to start at 7.30. We were very well represented at our last meeting, so hopefully we will have a good representation from our Pariash community. Thanks for your support and committment Sacristan needed for Church in Kilquiggan. Gertie Keogh has dedicated many years to the church in Kilquiggan and we are very grateful to her and her family for all their hard work. She has decided to step down now and leave this responsibility to someone else. Anyone interested in helping out in Kilquiggan please contact Fr. John or any member of the Parish Pastoral Council.

HAVE A WONDERFUL WEEK
