St. Brigid.

St. Brigid's Day in ancient times became the reference point for all the seasons that followed. It dictated the ploughing, the sowing, the turning of the sod. The feast was seen as a celebration of the incarnation of Christ to all of life. "In the milking of cows, and the tending of the hearth, in threading the loom and gathering the peat, the breath of prayer blessing each movement, a naming of creator upon each mindful deed". May we ensure the creator is at the heart of all we do and say in the name of Brigid.

Brigid: You were a woman of peace. You brought harmony where there was conflict. You brought light to the darkness. You brought hope to the downcast. May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and in our world. Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all God has made. Brigid you were a voice for the wounded and the weary. Strengthen what is weak within us. Calm us into a quietness that heals and listens. May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

I don't care what people say about me. I know who I am and I don't have to prove anything to anyone.

HAVE A WONDERFULL WEEK
